Happy Birthday!!

Description

Hello all, I made a birthday card today.

20131125\_145139 No image found type unknown

Here is my card.

20131125\_145139 No image found type unknown I love all the images by Saturated Canary and so finally I created a card using this cute image call Ava. I colored her with Prisma pencils and adhere her with some dimensions on panel which I have inked with various Memento and Distress inks. I wanted to make a girly card so used some yummy patterned papers by American Crafts Dear Lizzy's "Neapolitan Collection" (One of my all time favorite collection). For sentiment I used Basic Grey's patterned papers and inked it with Distressed ink and distressed the edges of it and stamped the sentiment by Penny Black. The button is by Doodled Bug. Lastly some stickles. I love this cute image, specially her eyes. Hope you will like this card.

Thank you so much for visiting. ðŸ™,
