

A perfect day!!!

Description

Hello friends!! Today I am very excited and honored to join the fabulous team of CASology as a guest designer.

Guest Designer Badge 2013

The cue word is

Week 57 Picnic\(1\)

I made this card

Kanan Pandya www.ifeelglee.com

wanted to create a sweet picnic scene with all the elements. So I drew the picnic basket, bottle of lemonade and ketchup and some sandwiches and yes for some more fun I also drew a boombox, and lastly I drew a picnic mat on a patterned paper and added some dimension to it. I colored all the images with Prisma pencils and added some patterned papers. The sentiment is by Hero Arts. I love all the bold and bright colors with little touch of patterned papers against white background.

Thank you so much Melissa, and the CASology team for having me as a guest designer this week, it was a great experience. ðŸ™,
