Hello friends!!! It's been long time since my last post. Finally I was able to make one card.

I am submitting this card for the current challenge at Virginia's View which is all about Die-cut.

Here's my card

I just love this card as for the first time I made those beautiful flower embellishments. I first die-cut few flowers using Tim Holtz Tattered Floral Die. I made two tiny roses using smallest flower die and made one big flower using small and medium die. I inked them with Memento and Distress inks and added glitters and Glossy Accents for more natural look (I wanted to show the dew drop effect on that big flower). I also made few vines using paper stripes and Distress ink. After that I die-cut scalloped edge label using Spellbinders die. Stamped few images using Hero Arts (My Favorite, CG292, Remember) and Tim Holtz stamp and inked it with Distress inks. I wanted the collage effect on it. Adhere all the flowers and hand made vines on that panel. For the background I inked up the burlap panel and also inked up one patterned paper. Adhere everything on card base and applied lots of gold glitter using sickles. I love all the bright colors and those flowers. Hope you will like this card.

Thank you for visiting and leaving sweet comments. See you all soon. ?
