Description

Hallooo friendsâ€™I am back with a new card, and todayâ€™s card is really special for me. I have tried something new for the first time.

Do you love doodling? I love a lot..;-) And so created this card using almost all the stamps I am having, some of them are new stamps from (Penny Black â€™ Mimiâ€™s Many Love) but only in a different way, I tried to use all the tiny and fun images from different stamp sets I am having and then drew few images here and there like tiny hearts, leaves, tree, the moon and girl and boy behind that,some tiny stars, rain drops,funny faces and many more..and how can I forget stickles and glossy accent? So I used lots of stickels on my images and glossy accent on hearts. The background created with my Memento Ink (Bahama Blue). I guess the sentiment is perfect for this card, something so positive. What do you think???
