For You

Description

H σ menus, this is my third α last post for today, you can find my first post here α second post here.

for amily hallengeLove the current challenge at Penny Black blog "For Familiae, I an entering modern for it.

I was having this cute Postcard stamp (1369L) by Penny Black for quite a long time, which I never used before. I stamped it on a cream colored cardstock and inked it with Distress Ink (Antique linen).. love the old postcard look. Few days back I visited an Antique Store and purchased few things from there. For the packaging, the store lady used this old paper. I saved it so I can use it for my projects. Tore few strips from paper, inked it with the same ink and adhered it on my card. For some extra cuteness, I added few more elements. $\eth \ddot{Y}^{TM}$,

Thank you so much and see you until next time.
