VV Challenge #22

I am also entering my card in the current Virginia View's Summer Challenge.

Here's the card

I love

this adorable stamp set by Simon Says Stamp. Instead of stamping and coloring the images, this time I stamped those sweet images on my all time favorite Dear Lizzy patterned paper and cut them out. I create my own water colored background which I created using various Distress inks and white embossed the balloon image from another SSS stamp set. I used spellbinders scalloped die to create the first panel and adhere all the images on it and adhere the first panel on the circle panel which I create using circle cutter and finally added the sentiment which is also by SSS and lots of sequins and little bit of glitter. I LOVE the bright look and beautiful blend of various colors on this card and those images look so very sweet. Hope you will like my card.

Thank you for visiting and always leaving sweet comments, see you soon. ?
