I made this card for the 90 minutes Scramble which was held at Hero Arts Flickr Group and it was hosted by Barb theme was to use pink and silver colors with some hearts on your project. I always like the combination of pink and silver, it look so pretty and elegant. I silver embossed and die cut my favorite butterfly by Hero Arts on vellum and inked it with Distress inks. I used three different shades of pink and stamped one splatter image from Brush Strokes set by Hero Arts. Finally silver embossed the sentiment by CL371 set on a light pink card stock, I also added some silver hearts on my card. I just love how it turned out, it look so pretty, hope you will like this card too.

Thank you so much for stopping by and please come back as I am going to post one more card.
