
Have a Great Day...

Description

Happy New Year friends, hope you all enjoyed the first day of 2013.

I am submitting this card for couple of challenges and one of that is The Play Date Café and as you all know it's a color challenge and this time the color inspiration was as below

I had so much fun making this card, beautiful color choices and I was having so many ideas on my mind and then finally I came out with this card.

In making of this card, I used the chip board jar from American Craft's and the flower stamp is from Michael's Craft Store and the sentiment is from Hero Arts (CL351) and for gold color I used glitter papers from Michael's Craft Store and also used some gold stickles.

See you soon with another card. Take care and have fun.
