
Hello Beautiful

Description

Hello friends!!! I am visiting my own blog after a long time but I am really enjoying my mini vacation here in India with my family. Last week I celebrated my daughter's first birthday, can you believe it she is already one year old? Time really flies. Well it's not that I have forget about crafting or something?. I do make cards or draw something in between to catch up on my creativity. Today I made a fresh card.

This week's CASology word is "Pretty".

This is my take on it.

By now you all must be knowing that I love to doodle or illustrate my own images on cards. So for this card, I illustrated some flowers first with pencil and then highlighted it with Prisma colored pencils with the shades of grays and added few leaves and a bud with red color for which I added Prisma pencils as well as red ball point. The sentiment is by Simon Says Stamp. I really love how it turned out and it really looks gorgeous against that white background. It looks simple yet very pretty. What do you say? Hope you will like my card.

Thank you so much for visiting and see you all very soon. ?
