

Hip Hip Hooray

Description

I am back with one more card.

CSC1378_zpsd395688c I always love to create cute, little scene and this week's inspiration card by JJ at CASE Study is just my kind of card, love the masked clouds and cute images on that.

for family challenge Penny Black is having "For Family" challenge at their blog and I am entering this card for that challenge, as the sentiment is so sweet and can be use for anyone & on any occasion.

cfc99 A birthday card challenge ant CAS-ual Friday,

So I came up with this card

20130430_140513 I created the background with Distress Ink (Tumbled Glass) using the scalloped edged border, the cute image and sentiment is from Penny Black stamp "Lulu's Party" I water colored the images using water color pencils, it looks so cute, isn't it? Finally added stickles on the hat and balloon.

Thank you so much for stopping by, as I mentioned in my earlier post I am going to post three cards today and this is my second card you can find my first card here, so see you in sometime with today's last card. ðŸ™,
