

If friends were flowers I'd pick YOU!!

Description

Hello friends, hope your week is going great. I got some time to make a card.

ofc108 This week's challenge at CAS-ual Friday blog is to add some sort of a material like fabric, felt, canvas etc.

challenges27 Also entering to this week's A Blog Named Hero challenge.

I came up with this card.

added denim material to my card. I first drew a pocket and trace the shape to the material and cut that out. I added stitches using white gel pen. I colored the smallest flower of three dotted flowers by Hero Arts and the leaf. I adhere them with some dimensions. Added some stickles. The sentiment is by Stamping Bella. The combinations of denim with bold colored flowers looks great, I am happy I choose denim as my material.

Thank you so much for stopping by. ?
