I am

all entering it into CASology challenge.

I come up with this card.

I used

the “Painted Flowers” set by Altenew for this card. I love the inspiration picture, for my card I first watercolored the background with light pink color and used Memento and Distress inks for my roses, I only used two layers from the set for the roses. I cut them out and adhere them on my card with some dimensions and punched lace border. Lastly added the sentiment from “Persian Motifs” set and some sequins. Hope you will like my simple card.

Thank you all for stopping by and leaving sweet comments.
