is y card

I love

all the layers and shades of this inspiration picture but I was having only two shades of turquoise card stock so I decided to use the border punch for my card. I first adhere all the borders on the front panel and then gold embossed a strip and adhere that on top of all. I made flower using the same papers and roughly cut three circles, distressed the edges of all and crumpled them. After that I applied some gold stickles on it. Finally gold embossed the sentiment by Hero Arts "Remember" set and added some sequins. I really like this color combination, I do have a saree with the exact color combination. Hope you will like this card.

Thank you for stopping by and see you all soon. ?
