

On Your Special Day!!!

Description

Hello friends, welcome back. This is my second post, you can find my first post here.

It's birthday celebration week3 at Wplus9 blog and I am playing along with the current Trend Watch Challenge.

I made this card.

My other favorite trendy thing is sequins. It can make any project beautiful and elegant. If it is CAS or colorful, just add few sequins and it will completely change the look of any project. On my card I first stamped few floral patterns from WPlus9 "Fresh Cut Floral" set. I stamped them using few Distress and Memento inks. I tried to incorporate watercolor trend also by adding some patterned paper by American Crafts which was already having this cool watercolor effect on it. Adhere everything on my card base with some dimension and finally added some transparent sequins. I love how my card turned out, love the bright and elegant look of it. Hope you will like this card too.

Thank you for stopping by.
