I always love to create night scenes on cards. I love the star theme and for my card I created the background with Memento inks and used the stencil for the stars. The Owl is from CL305 set by Hero art and so the sentiment. I used this particular stamp after quite a few months. I colored the owl using Prisma pencils. I applied the Martha Stewart's glitters on each star. I love this color combination for the night scene and all the those stars. Hope you will like this card too.

Thank you all for stopping by and always leaving sweet comments. I will be back soon with a new card.
