Beautiful color combinations over at Altenew blog for their current monthly challenge.

Here's my card.

I used

the "Charmed†set by Altenew for my card and water colored it using zig markers. Added some splatter on the background and loosely adhere the image. Added the sentiment from the "Painted Sentiments†Set by Altenew. Lastly, added some sequins and gems. Love how it turned out as specially after so many months.

I hope you will like my card, please don't forget to leave a little love. See you all very soon. ðŸ™,
