Description

Hello all, today was the scramble day at Hero Art's™s Flickr group and was host by Janet. Love her theme it was about butterflies or rainbows or both. I choose both for my card.

Here is my card

I first color my card base with various inks for the rainbow effect and sprinkled some water drops. I colored the Hero Art butterfly with Prisma pencils, I tried to add all the rainbow color to the butterfly. After that I punched some butterflies out of rainbow inked scrap paper and added some stickles on all the butterflies. On the main card base I inked the Distress ink (Tumbled Glass) to give the sky looks and finally added some pearls and sentiment (CL351). I love all the bright colors.

Thank you so much and please stay tuned as I am posting one more card. ðŸ™,
