I am

er pring to the current CASometry challenge by Anna.

Hee's my care

the "Uptown Girl Pippa loves to Plant" set by Stampingbella as my random stamp. I colored it with the polychromos pencils. I really love the sentiment which is from the same set. Added some sequins, doily and some wink of stella. Added some polka dot patterned paper for more interest. Love the how simple yet pretty those images look.

Thank you so much for stopping by see you all soon.
