
Happy Birthday!!

Description

Hello friends, I finally made one card using watercolors.

CFC99 I am also entering this card for current challenge at CAS-ual Fridays

20130424_130125\(1\) I have used watercolors before also but this time I used different technique on my card. I used table salt for my card, It was actually an experiment and I was not sure how it will look but I gave it a try and got this amazing background, I really liked the textured. After that I stamped the Hero Arts (CG171) stamp twice using White chalk ink and Distress ink (Dusty Concord) once the background was completely dry, the white inks gives the smudge look, I really liked it. I white embossed the sentiment from Hero Arts (CL305). Finally added some sequins and adhere it on black card base.

Thank you for stopping by, see you until next time. ðŸ™, www.ifeelglee.com
