I have a birthday card today for you.

the big dot stamp from “Brush Strokes” set by Hero Arts. Recently I have used it on many of my cards and I just love it. Today I tried it to make some fun colorful balloons. I stamped it using various Distress inks on a glossy card stock, they really look so beautiful against this pretty paper. I inked the background very lightly with Antique linen Distress ink as the background was too plain. I have this multicolored washi tape with fun designs on it, I adhere that on the left side of my card base. I think it goes very well with all the fun colors. For the sentiment I used Hero Arts set CL695 which was having the word “happy” in that but for word “birthday” I masked the other letters and created it. For some extra interest I cut the bottom edge of the card with scalloped scissor. I am entering this card in the current Hero Art challenge in the “Rainbow of color birthday cards or party decor” category. I love all the bright colored balloons on my card, I hope you will like this card too.

Thank you so much for stopping by and see you all soon. ?
