February Poppy Sketch

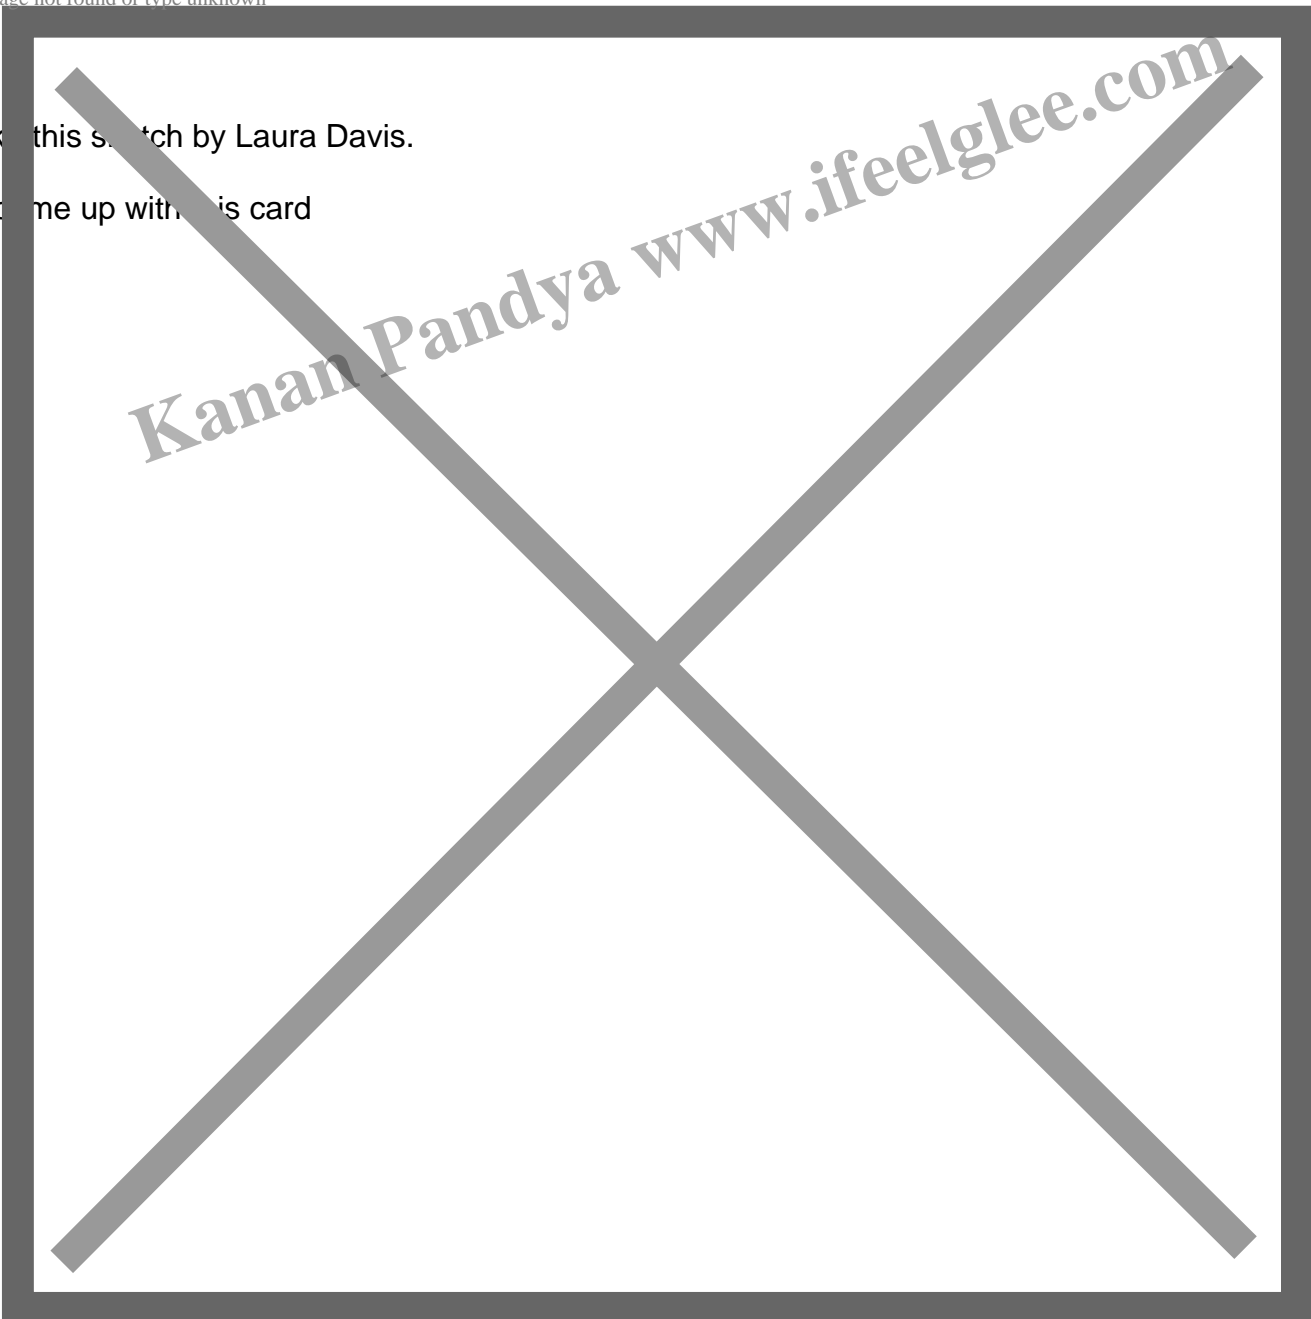

This inspiration picture at Cure For The Monday Blues Challenge #3 is so beautiful, isn't it? It has everything, lots of bright colors, great patterns and yet it has clean and simple look. I just love it.

I also

I like this sketch by Laura Davis.

I came up with this card

I like the black and white patterns it has this doodle effect, I chose one of the stamp from “Brush Stroke” stamp set and created a patterned square. All the bright and beautiful cushions attract me the most in this picture. I added butterfly and three scalloped circles to match some of the cushion colors and designs. I inked the CG307- Sweet Threads Spirals with Distress ink and stamped it to match that floor lamp. Lastly stamped and embossed the sentiment from CL371 by Hero Arts on a vellum and adhere everything on my card. I like how my card turned out, hope you will like this card too.

Thank you so much stopping by and see you all very soon. ?
