

Hello

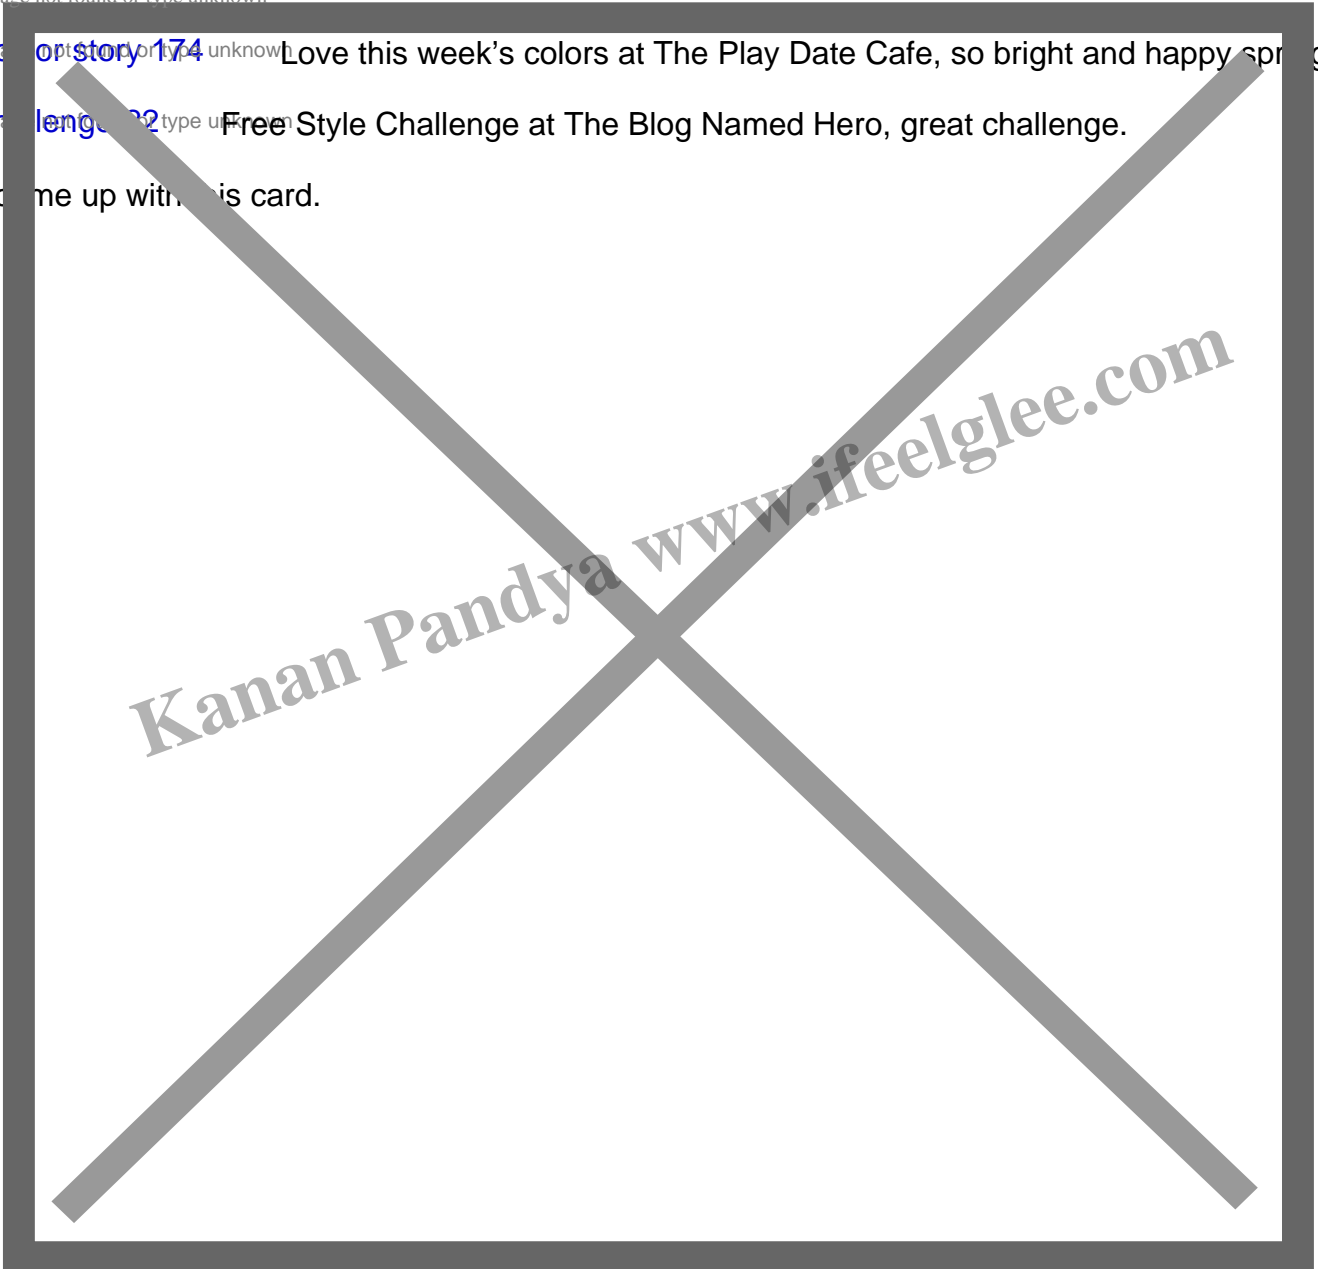

Description

Hey everyone, I am back with one new card.

October story 174 Love this week's colors at The Play Date Cafe, so bright and happy spring colors.

challenge 32 Free Style Challenge at The Blog Named Hero, great challenge.

I come up with this card.

I white

embossed Hero Arts (CG315) stamp, but instead of stamping straight I just put my paper diagonally, just to give different look, I colored it with all Memento Inks (Grape Jelly, Bamboo Leaves, Pear Tart) I used two scalloped borders to balance the contrast between the card base and embossed panel, I also used Hero Arts (CL371) for the sentiment and added sequins too.

Thank you so much for visiting, see you soon. ?
