

I love cruising through life with you. :-)

Description

Hello all, hope you all doing fine. My first card for this week.

untitled found or type unknown

I am playing with Lawnscape Challenge after a long time, I love this week's challenge, I always love to create little cute scene so thought to play.

So I came up with this card.

20130225_141759 found or type unknown

I love these stamp sets (Crusing through life & Bon Voyage) and thought to use American Craft's (Dear Lizzy collections), this paper pad is one of my all time favorite, just love the colors. I distressed the edges of my card base with Memento Dye and Chalk inks, and tried to give some shabby look to my card, so used all green (dye ink) blue and pink (Chalk inks) punched some butterflies and add some stickles to it. I stamped words from the sentiment seperately each time, I guess it looks cute, what do you say? ? I colored the bike with Prisma colored penciles, also used "Such Fun" sentiment from the same paper. I gave final touch to my card with white gel pen, just love the look of it.

Thank you so much for visitng. See you soon. ?
