Step-by-step Instructions

Step 1: Die Cut Those Hexagons

Grab your die cutting machine and cut out several hexagons in different sizes using the hexagon dies. Keep it interesting!

Step 2: Time to Ink Up

Let's add some color! Grab your Hero Arts reactive inks and start blending those hexagons with your desired shades.

Step 3: Stamp Your Paw-ty Images

Using the Birthday Paw-ty stamp set and your reactive inks, stamp some cute images onto white cardstock. You can use the acrylic block to make sure your stamps are properly aligned.

Step 4: Cut Out Those Images

Carefully use scissors to cut out the stamped images. Don't worry, take your time and you'll do great!

Step 5: Bring It All Together

Take the hexagons and glue them onto a white card base in a way that looks awesome to you. Then, use foam tape to attach the cute stamped images, giving them a bit of pop!

Step 6: Add Some Bling

Make your card shine with some final touches! Add some glitter or sequins to give your card that extra sparkle and pizzazz.
