Hello all, I am back. This is my second post you can find my first post here.

How

about some acrylic paints and water colors with some collage technique?

This is the final look of my card.

I wanted to make a card using some shades of orange and red with violet and green. I start coloring my water color paper with some water colors and acrylic colors, once I achieved the background I wanted I adhere them on my card base and stamped the Hero Arts stamps (Remember set and CG292) using various Memento inks. I just love my Memento inks they all are stars for me for my each project. I gold embossed my sentiment, just love all these colors together. I really like this different style of collage card, with some water color effect. I hope you like this too.

Thank you so much visiting and always leaving sweet comments on my blog, it really means a lot to me. ðŸ™,
