I almost changed my new card. I love that cute little owl and the background colors I chose to create in the old card, it looks quite dreamy, isn't it? I wanted to make the new card more dreamy and cute but slightly differently, so I drew my own mason jar and water colored it using few Distressed inks and added stars using white gel pen. I colored the same owl from Hero Arts stamp set and colored it using Prisma Colored Pencils. And adhered him on (put him inside, actually ?) mason jar. I then partially inked the card base and adhere the jar on it. Lastly, I added some punched butterfly and stickles. I really like this card because it reminds of some unique and dreamy story. Hope you will like my card.

Thank you so much for stopping by and see you all very soon. ðŸ™,
