Hello friends!! I am here with a new card.

I really

love the current sketch over at CASE This sketch challenge blog.

I got my new stamp set "Beautiful Flowers" by Simon Says Stamp just in time and so thought to submit it in the current "The Flower Challenge".

Here is my take.

stamped few of the flower and leaves images from this set and colored it using zig markers. Splattered the card base using same colors and added two strips which I water colored using Distress ink. Added the images with some dimensions. Lastly, added some matching gems. The sentiment is also from the same set. I really love the bright look and the placement of images. Hope you will like it too.

Thank you so much for stopping by and leaving lovely comments on my post, it really means a lot to me. ðŸ™,
