

Thinking of You

Description

Hello all and Welcome to my blog. ?

6a00d8341bfdb53ef015432ce15a9970c-800wi_zps22851bdc Love this week's inspiration at CASE Study Challenge, isn't this card is lovely, so pretty colors and especially on kraft.

0colorstory_172 But I choose different colors as I really like this weeks color inspiration at The Play Date Cafe.

So I combined both the challenges and came up with this card.

20130311_151816 I first white embossed Hero Arts Stamp on my card base. Then for the front panel I used flower stamp from Michaels, which is also white embossed, I used Memento inks (Bahama Blue, Rose Bud) to color them, well I do not have any stamp for leaves so I drew it with white gel pen and colored it with Prisma. The card base was looking too dull and I did not like that look so I colored it with the same Memento Inks to balance both the panel. I also used "Bamboo leaves" Memento ink on that off white panel very lightly, finally used Hero Arts sentiment stamp (CL351).

Thank you so much for visiting, see you soon. ?
